This matter came on for hearing on September 10, 2008 on Defendant's duly-noticed motion to dismiss on the grounds of lack of jurisdiction. The court has read the papers submitted in support and in opposition to the motion, and has considered the arguments of counsel and the authorities cited to the court.

The Court has concluded that there is no diversity between the parties. Therefore,

IT IS ORDERED THAT

1. The motion of Defendant is GRANTED.

//

//

1 2. The case will be dismissed. Counsel for Defendant will prepare a written form of judgment
2 of dismissal.
